Re: MF Global Holdings Ltd., Case No. 11-15059 (MG)

Dear Judge Glenn:

I understand there may be a motion to the court today presented by the Trustee that paints customers who had only cash in their accounts on October 31st as a very "limited group."

This is unlikely to be so. It is ordinary course of business for many customers of FCM's to go completely in cash on the last day of the month. I would like to know upon what basis the Trustee has determined this to be a "a limited group?"

I want you to know that I am one of thousands of customers completely in cash on October 31, 2001. And like thousands of other customers bankruptcy handing has left me in a severely dire situation that increases with each day.

Under what logic of law shall cash-only customers be prejudiced? I trust the judgment of the court to address this fairly and honestly and rule immediate return of all segregated customer cash deposits which are titled and identified to customers. We all have our statements.

Respectfully and Sincerely Yours,

Kenneth I. Ginsberg
